THERMOMETER RECORD.

The following shows the range of the temperature as observed yesterday at Silver's Drug Store, corner opposite the Post Office:

8 A.M. 11 M. 3 P.M. 7 P.M.
48 58 67 55

EMPTY.

At 10 o'clock last evening the lock up was empty.

A GENTLEMAN with a remarkable turn for music was in town yesterday--he turned a crank.

MOUNDEVILLE.

It is this place progresses in art as in literature, all the omnibuses will eventually be painted there.

SYNDICATE.

The Syndicate of Pittsburgh, to which the Presbyterian Churches of this city belong, meets in East Liberty, adjoining Pittsburgh, Friday of next week.

BREAK DOWN.

The axle of a cart driven by Michael O'Brien gave way yesterday afternoon, spreading a load of "clinkers" in the vicinity of the Riverside Mill.

ENTERTAINING.

The antics of an intoxicated individual attracted a crowd of various persons, policemen excepted, in the vicinity of the Post Office last evening.

DEAD.

Patrick Griffith, the man who was thrown from a wagon near Fulton on Tuesday evening, died at an early hour yesterday morning from the injuries received.

INDIAN SUMMER.

Yesterday was a specimen of genuine Indian Summer.
The sun shone warm and bright, and the streets were unusually full of gay and lively pedestrians.

CANTINES.

Our streets at present abound with curs of high and low degree, who all night long bay the moon in continuous security. Why not inaugurate a massacre of these innocents?

NOMENCLATURE.

Martin's Ferry wants a shorter name. We hope she will get it and take the liberty of suggesting that the future greatness of Moundville demand for that place a more dignified title.

KNOCKED DOWN.

On Tuesday afternoon a woman named Koch, while crossing the railroad near Boggs' Run with a child in her arms, was knocked down by a passing train, seriously bruising her head and shoulder.

FRAUD.

The amateur Boston Peace jubilee enacted every evening immediately under our sanctum window, by a combination of disorderly cats, are sufficient to occasion a profound contempt for that which "soothed the savage breast" and inspired this item.

MATRIMONIAL.

The currency stringency does not seem to effect the matrimonial market in the least. Considerable activity is reported among contracting parties, and a knowing one asserts that about a dozen such celebrations will occur in the next two weeks.

S. CIAL.

These are evenings of parties
--occasions for funny young men, laughing girls, and bald-headed bachelors with yellow hearts:

"Society itself, which could create kisses, destroys what little we have got;
To feel for one is the true social art
Of the world's dance--those without a heart."

THE TEMPT.

A good audience greeted the third representation of this grand work last evening, and the efforts of the several performers elicited enthusiastic applause.

To-night will be produced "the Honeymoon" and "Jennie Lind," with a change of programme every evening during the week.

The crowd of last evening indicates that the people appreciate the enterprise of Mr.
Fitzsimmons, and the prospects of success are flattering.

RARE RELICS.

We were yesterday shown a tescup and saucer which came over the ocean in the memorable May flower. They are china, with flowers, and the cup is considerably smaller than those in use at the present day. They are now in the possession of Mr. William Taylor, who resides on the corner of Chapline and 24th streets, and whose ancestors brought them from England.

Mr. Taylor has also in his possession two cups which were found in the ruins of Pompeii, showing the unique designs and superior workmanship of ancient times.

DELINQUENT LETTERS.--The following is a list of letters remaining in the Wheeling Postoffice on account of non-prepayment of postage: Rudolf Lexow, No. 3595 New York City, 3c; A. H. Logan, Duquesne Way, Pittsburgh, Pa., 3c; Mary F. Young, Connelville, Ohio, 3c; Adam Kirkwood, Terre Haute, Ind., 3c; Malinda Wagner, Water Cure, Beaver Co., Pa., 3c; David Foster, St. Clairsville, Ohio, 3c; To the Secretary of the Interior, Washington, D. C., 3c; F. A. Haymond, Steubenville, O., 3c; John D. Baker, Commissioner of Pensions, Washington City, 3c; S. L. Swartz, Paw Paw, W. Va., 1c; Rosanna Coss, Martinsville, Ohio, 3c; Wm. McKewen, Barnesville, Ohio, 3c; Zack Springer, Philadelphia, W. Va., 1c; Mrs. Sallie Atkinson, Taylorville, Ill., 8c.

The following are held for better directions: Daniel Carver, No. 322 West street, "The Fashion House, in the Saloon;" Miss Maria Carver, same directions.

COUNTY COURT.

Met at the usual hour yesterday morning, and disposed of causes as follows:

Mayer & Bro. vs. Louis P. Salterbach. Office judgment set aside, and plaintiff ordered to file bill of particulars.

Elizabeth Higgs vs. Martin Murphy. The evidence and argument in this case were heard at a former day of this term; judgment was given for the plaintiff for $108.

Andrew Holmes, appellee, vs. R. H. Gillespie, appellant. Proceedings set aside and the cause ordered back to the Circuit Court.

Merchants' National Bank vs. W. H. Chapman & Co. The judgment had on the 6th instant was set aside, and the defendants allowed to file affidavits.

Adjourned to this morning at 9 o'clock.

HAMILTON OPERA HOUSE.

The attendance at this beautiful place of amusement last night was very satisfactory, a much larger and more fashionable audience being in attendance than on the previous evening. We are assured by Manager James Fitzsimmons that hereafter the house will be made more comfortable by the new furnaces which have arrived and will be placed in position to-day.

To-night will be presented an entirely new bill, "The Honey Moon," a splendid comedy, and the side splitting farce "Jennie Lind," all the Star Dramatic Company appearing. Procure your seats early, as there will undoubtedly be a rush.

POLICE COURT.

The following cases were disposed of at this court yesterday morning:

Charles Vennum, drunk, $3 and costs.
Peter Loeffler, disorderly, continued to this morning at 9 o'clock.

Smith Butler, creating tumult and disorder in the Eighth Ward, $3 and costs each.

Ferdinand Luft and Wm. Dornen, tumult and disorder in Eighth Ward, $3 and costs each.

At the last meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Churches of this city, at Baltimore, the Board of Foreign Missions reported a debt of about $128,000. Already the donations from churches and individuals amount to $108, 592.05. No less than $20,000 are now needed to wipe out the debt.

Judging from the number of ladies congregated at the Weed Sewing Machine room examining and selecting some of those elegant patterns for sale there, we would think that every lady was her own dressmaker, but perfectly satisfied that that is the place to go to get the latest styles and most reliable patterns. New number 1231 Market street.

We refer our readers this morning to the special announcements found elsewhere through our columns by Messrs.
I. Blum & Bro. Their offerings are of such a nature as will, no doubt, arouse the curiosity of all.

Two HUNDRED Shawls (job lots) just
